The Garden Series with George Weigel New York Flowers by Rail and by Sea

September 14, 2012

Garden columnist George Weigel will be on board to talk gardening, answer questions and provide insights on what you'll be seeing.

Itinerary

Friday, September 14

- 6:00 AM Depart Stauffers of Kissel Hill, Mechanicsburg
- 6:30 AM Depart Weis Markets Linglestown Rd., Harrisburg
Breakfast, lunch and rest stop in route
- 10:00 AM Approximate arrival in New York City.
Explore the new High Line Gardens.
When complete, the High Line will be a mile-and-a-half-long elevated park running through the West Side neighborhoods of the meat-packing district, West Chelsea and Clinton/Hell's Kitchen. It features a naturalistic landscape of grasses, trees and wildflowers and gives a wonderful new look at the city below. Fixed and movable seating, lighting, and special features are also included in the park.
- 12:30 PM Lunch on own ~ Chelsea Market
- 1:30 PM Depart for Snug Harbor
- 2:00 PM Snug Harbor Cultural Center and Botanical Garden
This Staten Island park is a one-time community for retired sailors that's been converted into a regional arts center housing museums and arts programs as well as an active artist-in-residence program. One of the highlights is an authentic Chinese Scholars Gardens built in the late 1990s by 40 Chinese artisans. Snug Harbor is considered one of New York City's unique architectural complexes and historic landscapes.
- 4:30 PM Depart for dinner
- 9:30 PM Approximate return to Harrisburg.
