

The Garden Series Presents:

Sponsored by:

“Islands of Aloha” March 5, 7, 8, or 9, 2012

ITINERARY

This is the world's biggest and oldest indoor flower show and is spectacle that everyone – including non-gardeners – should have on their must-see-at-least-once list. Many people make it a point to go every year.

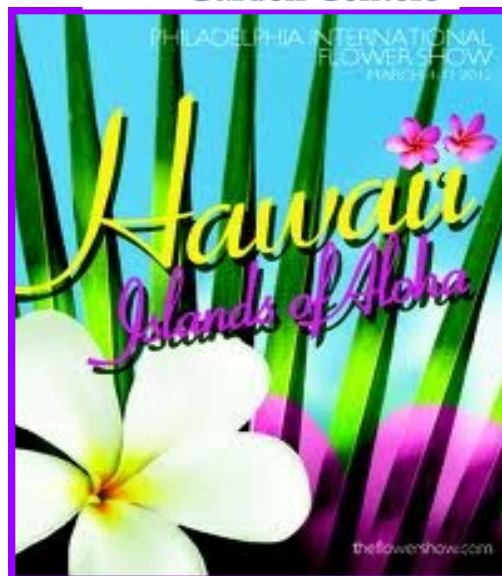

The 2012 theme is Hawaii, and the show will feature 40+ blooming display gardens, more than 100 vendors and an impressive amateur plant competition.

From towering waterfalls and waves of orchids, to glowing volcanoes and serene sunsets. The 2012 Flower Show is an immersion in dramatic landscapes and tranquil spirit of Hawaii.

Be carried away to a floral hula fest, romantic beach wedding, tropical ranch house, surfers' retreat, and a rocky garden of the gods.

The trip includes transportation to and from the Pennsylvania Convention Center, show ticket and on-board show tips and gardening tidbits by Patriot-News garden writer George Weigel
